Guidelines

1. One (1) $1000 scholarship will be awarded to a senior JROTC High School Student who is a dependent of an active duty or retired military service member. The student must be living in and attending High School in Carteret, Craven, Jones, Beaufort or Pamlico Counties,
2. The applicants must complete the 12th grade, receive a diploma, and be planning to attend a college, university, or community college, and be enrolled in a course of study that leads to an Associates degree or the declared intent to transfer to a four-year college or university to complete degree requirements. Applicants may be accepted to any accredited college, university, or community college. Applicants are not required to attend a college, university or community college in North Carolina.
3. Applicants must be enrolled with a study course of a minimum of 12 credit hours.
4. The scholarship may be based on financial need; however, all-around excellence in academics, civic and social activities will be instrumental in the selection process.
5. Applicant must:
 - A. Provide a sealed, certified copy of high school, community college, or college/university transcripts. (Both if dual enrolled)
 - B. Provide SAT / ACT score results. (If the gaining university or college does not require SAT/ACT results due to Covid-19 accommodations, this requirement can be waived.)
 - C. Provide certified copy of community college college or university letter of acceptance.
 - D. Provide a personal statement of commitment to attend accepting educational facility, describing your course of study and degree planned. (Please include a statement heading.)
 - E. Submit a list of current and past organizational affiliations, activities and responsibilities.
 - F. Provide two current, dated and signed personal letters of reference/recommendation. Persons writing these letters must not be related to the applicant. Letters must include writer's name, occupation, home address and telephone number.
 - G. Provide an essay of 500 words or less which includes:
 1. The reason you have chosen your selected course of study.
 2. Your plans for the future.
 3. The reasons we should award you this scholarship.
6. Applications and supporting information, once submitted, become the property of the CC/MOA Scholarship Committee. Applicants should rest assured your scholarship application will be treated as privileged information and will not be released without applicant's consent.
7. The Coastal Carolina Chapter of the Military Officers Association of America maintains a policy of non-discrimination; therefore, the scholarship is awarded without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, disability, or national origin.
8. Applications and supporting documents must be postmarked no later than 30 April 2022, and sent to:
